Dukes, C/Os Ayers, Griffin, Ayers, Yahn, Gerber, and Simpson	Physical psychological, deprivation of recreation, food, shower, property, malnutrition,	After filing a lawsuit against the special management unit where he is held concerning experimental research, food poisoning, denial of meals, beatings, and denial of programs to mental health patients, Keys was attacked during a cell search while handcuffed to a dog leash. Sergeant Dukes , corrections officers Ayers, Griffin, Yahn, Gerber and Simpson took Keys into empty cell 2 C pod S.M.U and repeatedly punched and kicked him in the head. The physical abuse was accompanied by racial slurs. Keys suffered a broken nose, two black eyes and a fractured skull. Pictures and X-rays were taken. Since that incident Keys has been systematically harassed, denied exercise, meals and showers, and his property has been destroyed. When he does receive meals they often contain broken glass, urine or feces. Sergeant Dukes told Keys that he had a disease and that he put his D.N.A. in his food.	Yes	Yes race
